2. Code of Conduct

As a disaster relief volunteer, you represent our organization and play a critical role in supporting affected communities. You are expected to adhere to the following standards of behavior:

- Safety First: Adhere to all safety protocols, wear required personal protective equipment (PPE), and do not perform tasks beyond your physical capabilities or training.
- Respect and Professionalism: Treat all community members, survivors, staff, and fellow volunteers with dignity, respect, and compassion regardless of race, religion, gender, or background.
- Confidentiality: Respect the privacy of disaster survivors. Do not share personal information, photographs, or stories of affected individuals on personal social media accounts without explicit, written permission.
- Sobriety: The possession, use, or being under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or unauthorized controlled substances while on duty is strictly prohibited.
- Property Care: Respect and properly care for all tools, equipment, and facilities provided for the relief efforts.

3. Liability Waiver and Release

By signing below, I acknowledge that volunteering in disaster relief environments involves inherent risks, including but not limited to physical injury, exposure to hazardous materials, and emotional stress. I voluntarily assume these risks and release the host organization, its staff, partners, and sponsors from any and all liability, claims, or demands arising out of injury, illness, or property damage during my volunteer service.

4. Acknowledgment and Signature
